

Thursday 13th May 2021 – NACCS WorkshopsSession 1: 11:30 – 12:15

Leading your team through crisis: A practical guide from a clinical psychologist to identifying and managing the aftermath of tragedy.

Helen Horton, Leeds

Session 2: 12:15 – 13:00

Trainee Workshop: Practical Guide for Positioning in Neurosurgery.

a. Theory: Visual Loss, Splanchnic Ischaemia, Air Embolism, Peripheral Nerve Injury

b. Practical: Prone, Lateral, Sitting

Tiffany Halsay and Andy Ratcliffe, Leeds

12:55 – 14:00 Lunch break

Session 3: 14:00 – 14:45

Neuroanatomy 101:

Understanding normal brain cross sectional imaging and identifying pathology. A one stop guide for trainees wanting to get ahead and consultants wanting to a refresher course.

Dan Warren and Asim Sheik, Leeds

15:45 – 15:45 Coffee break

Session 4: 15:45 – 16:30

Neurophysiology 101: A step by step guide to understanding intraoperative and ICU electrophysiological monitoring of the CNS. A comprehensive introduction for trainees and consultants alike.

Taimour Alam, Leeds

Friday 14th May 2021 – NACCS WorkshopsSession 6: 10:45 – 11:30

The Trainee in Difficulty: A Guide for Consultants on How to Identify and Help a Trainee in Difficulty

Phil Jackson, Leeds

Session 7: 11:30 – 12:15

Awake craniotomy workshop: Anaesthetic technique, Scalp blocks, Functional testing, Emergencies.

Steve Wilson, Leeds

Close

